To Brighten The Home.

A curtain, a rug, a bit of silk, a table-cover, shades, etc. You'll find them all here in a puzzling variety and at prices to please.

$4.00 CHENILLE
PORTIERES, $2.48 Pr.

These we offer for to-morrow only. It's a very special thing. The curtains have pretty borders and fringe, some in a variety of colors, are fringed on the top and bottom, and are full 45 inches wide. Now, $2.48 will sell these quickly. There is not much in it for us at that price, but then while you are here we want you to glance at the other portieres (up to $8.35 pair), also the special things in lace curtains we are showing—(45c. to $14.95). All excellent for the money.

In the same department we have 500 samples of curtain lines, long enough for such curtains, ties, splashes, lampshades, etc. Choice of these.

15c. Each.
THEY ARE CHEAP.

PROLISOME LASS BID UP

Continuation of the Boosting System at the Alexander Island Course.

THREE FAVORITES SUCCESSFUL

The Only First Choices to Disappoint Were Handover and Fagin, the Former Going Down with a File of Hugh McCarron's Money—The Results at St. Asaph's Track.

The racing at Alexander Island yesterday was above the average, and the attendance was upwards of 2,000. The betting was very good, and the seven books had plenty of business to handle. The third race was the feature. Frank R. Hart and Pilgrim ran like a team to the wire, both under a hard drive, Hart winning only by a scant head. Prolisome Lass won her race quite handily, and her owner had to pay $500 over the entered selling price to retain the mare. Dick Baker bidding her up $500. In the fifth race the talent was divided between Finawater and Siberia, both being heavily played, closing at even money each. Siberia flattered her backers up to the last furlong, when Finawater got up and the race was over, the latter winning cleverly by a half length. Summaries:

AMONG AMATEUR ATHLETES

Football the Outdoor Attraction During the Cold Weather Season.

PHIL KING'S TASK AS COACH

Strong Efforts Being Made to Organize a Local Basket-ball League—Live! Times in the Gymnasium Where the Young Athletes Are in Training.

The past week with its wonderful weather has very clearly demonstrated that football, as played by amateurs, whether representing colleges or not, is supreme as the fall outdoor athletic attraction.

Wherever the game is played, word comes of even larger attendance than last year's big crowds, clearly showing the increased interest in the sport.

Locally, we were robbed by the elements of an opportunity to see the work of the Tigers in which team there is much local interest. The work by Princeton so far this season is not up to the standard which, even this, their admirers have reason to expect, taking records of former years as the standard. Our people have great confidence in the ability of Phil King to bring the team up to winning form. Naturally, his playing is missed, it could not be otherwise; he was a tower of strength in his position, and whether he can control his successors in the same way, or nearly as well, is the reigning question among admirers of "Old Nassau."

A BASKET BALL LEAGUE.
A very strong effort will be made to organize a basket ball league as early as possible this season, so that by the time football is being put on the rack for the year the new aspirant for popular favor may be taken up. It is, pure and simple, an indoor game, and one which is so full of life and motion and excitement that great things are predicted for it by its promoters as a winter game.

A meeting will shortly be called for the purpose of discussing the organization of the league, and from present appearances there will be four teams as a starter.

COLUMBIA ATHLETIC CLUB.

The members and friends of the Columbia Athletic Club were very naturally much disappointed when the lowering skies and rain stepped in and prevented the Princeton-G.A.C. game of football on Saturday last.

Naturally there was some expense attending the arranging and bringing forward of so great an attraction and as so often happens the weather deprived the club of a chance to give to the good and bad alike a show what its new team could do against one which will probably again win the season's great game at New York. Possibly later on an opportunity may be given to see Princeton on a trying trip.
